Videotron adds 45 new destinations to its Canada-International mobile plan

Montréal, August 21, 2024 - Videotron, the first telecom carrier in Québec with a Canada-International mobile plan that lets subscribers stay connected across Canada and in a multitude of destinations around the world, is making travellers happy again by adding 45 more destinations to the plan.

Starting today, subscribers to the Canada-International plan can use their mobile service in Australia, Japan, India, Vietnam, Sweden, Iceland and more! Thanks to Videotron, Quebecers can now travel to a total of 66 international destinations and stay in touch without worrying about roaming charges.

New customers can sign up for the 25 GB plan at the same affordable price of $60 per month (with an Internet plan) while current Canada-International subscribers will have the new destinations added to their plan at no extra charge. See the details at Canada-International phone plan - 25 GB.

The Canada-International plan is backed by Videotron's lifetime price guarantee: customers keep the same basic price, before promotions and discounts, for as long as they keep their plan. Full details at videotron.com/en/why-choose-videotron.
